1. Background

1.1 The chart below, which is taken from the Assembly Government’s “Development Plan Manual”, identifies the work that needs to be done during the process of preparing the Joint Local Development Plan:

Local Development Plan Manual June 2006

N.B. Plan preparation, SA and consultation should be undertaken in an integrated manner.

- 1.2 The aim of the new LDP system is:
- to steer the work of drawing up a LDP by means of the Sustainability Evaluation, incorporating a Strategic Environmental Assessment, to collate evidence and consider the long-term implications of the strategy's options and policies in LDPs;
 - to base the work of drawing up a LDP on effective liaison with communities, in order to consider a wide range of viewpoints, with the aim of securing a wider consensus regarding the strategy and policies in LDP policies;
 - to ensure the integration of policies by drawing up LDPs that are internally consistent and which are integrated with the other main policies and strategies at national, regional and local level (avoiding unnecessary repetition);
 - to ensure a quicker and more responsive way of drawing up plans, publishing timetables for preparatory work, fewer cases of repeating the plan before its adoption, and regular strategic monitoring and review in order to better reflect the changing circumstances of modern Wales; and
 - to draw up plans that are more strategic, concise and impressive in creating a strategy for how the area will develop and change, based on a robust understanding of the interdependence of places (both within and across administrative boundaries) and drivers of change.
- 1.3 The purpose of the Public Examination will be to establish whether the LDP is a "sound" one i.e. that it complies with 10 tests of soundness, and to come to a clear conclusion whether it can be safely adopted. The recommendations of the Inspector conducting the Public Examination will be binding i.e. the Authority will have no right to deviate from them.

2 Scrutiny and decision-making

- 2.1 First of all, the Council is required to draft a Delivery Agreement. Alongside the process of preparing the Delivery Agreement and after it is completed, a variety of detailed information will need to be collected about the economy, society and the environment. This information will be the factual basis for the Joint LDP and a means of ensuring that it is 'sound'. The Joint LDP must ensure that development is sustainable economically, socially and environmentally. The Sustainability Assessment Report that will need to be prepared alongside the Joint LDP will show how these have been considered.
- 2.2 The table in Appendix A to this report identifies the responsibilities of various committees as regards consideration and approval of any key documents associated with the statutory stages of the process of preparing the Joint LDP. These will be the documents that will be provided and published for statutory public consultation.
- 2.3 There are a number of key stages when participation by Councillors, the public and other stakeholders will be vital when drawing up the following for public consultation:

Pre-deposit documents of the Joint LDP	This will not be a full draft of the Joint LDP, but it will outline the main objectives and the preferred strategy for growth or change, including options for major developments.
Deposit Plan	Full draft plan of the Joint LDP

- 2.4 It is important that the detailed process of preparing the Joint LDP is facilitated, especially bearing in mind the importance of giving the public and other stakeholders the opportunity to influence its content, and bearing in mind the time limits within which the work must be done. In order to facilitate the process, the Joint Planning Policy Committee has the right to “appoint any panel or working group in order to assist the Committee in its work” (section C1 (vii) of the Agreement between the Isle of Anglesey County Council and Gwynedd Council). It is recommended that a Panel of the Joint Planning Policy Committee be established. The Panel will have an important role to play in the work of co-ordinating the main work elements.
- 2.5 It is recommended that the Panel should comprise of 6 members of the Joint Planning Policy Committee – 3 members from Anglesey and 3 from Gwynedd
- 2.6 Appendix 2 suggests what the duties of the Panel would be.

3 Recommendation

- 3.1 That a Joint Local Development Plan Panel be established and that its membership should be as shown in paragraph 2.5 above.
