SUBJECT

Item 5: GWYNEDD ECONOMY STRATEGY

DECISION

1. Accept the strategy and note the observations.
 2. Express concern regarding the availability of grants for deprived areas such as Gwynedd, and express hope that there will be equality and fairness within the County in relation to the distribution of resources and support.
 3. Note the importance of collaboration between the Economy and Community Department and the Environment Department to ensure that the New Local Development Plan addresses the need to attract jobs and businesses to the County. In the same way, collaborate with Eryri National Park.
 4. Suggest that a clear structure is established to review the progress at the end of the year against the delivery plan.

Item 6: IMMERSION EDUCATION SYSTEM

DECISION

1. Accept the report and note the observations.
 2. Ask the Cabinet Member for Education to:
 - lobby the Welsh Government further for additional financial resources.
 - further consider the option of returning to five days and/or consider the length of the period spent in the language centres, taking into account the well-being of the pupils.
 - hold further consultation with stakeholders and ensure that there is flexibility in the future provision.
 3. That the Scrutiny Committee extends its gratitude to all those involved in immersion, both in the language centres and within mainstream schools.
