

Stage 1 Results: The responses of Community/Town Councils, groups and organisations in the Bala and Penllyn Catchment Area

Draft Summary (January 2022)

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The purpose of the 'Ardal Ni 2035' project is to conduct a conversation and discussion with local communities to identify what matters to residents and how they would like to see the area develop in the next 10-15 years.
- 1.2 We intend to collaborate and jointly develop solutions with organisations, groups and individuals. At the end of the project there will be 13 specific regeneration frameworks that reflect the aspirations of local communities.
- 1.3 The first stage of the project was to conduct initial talks with Councillors, Community and Town Councils and local regeneration groups in order to establish:
  - What is good about the area?
  - What is not so good about the area?
  - What changes would you like to see happen in your area in the next 15 years, that would make your area a better place to live?
- 1.4 An invitation, together with area statements (namely booklets that summarised the main economic, social, cultural and environmental data) were sent to all Councillors, Community Councils and the main local groups.
- 1.5 Between September and November 2021 a discussion took place with 7 Community /Town Councils, organisations, groups and local Members in the Bala and Penllyn Catchment Area.

5.2 Are you aware of any local consultation work that has been undertaken in the last year?

- Llanuwchllyn Community Council have written a plan over the last few months to identify the main theme that affects the area and what is the role of the different bodies in response. Appreciate our help to incorporate those into the area plans to get support to try and respond to what has arisen, and to move their wishes forward.

5.3 Other matters concerning the work of 'Ardal Ni 2035' that arose in the Bala and Penllyn Area:

- Llanuwchllyn Community Council has prepared an area plan and are keen to have a discussion with the other Councils in the area via Partneriaeth Penllyn to incorporate this plan in the wider Bala and Penllyn plan.
- The loss of 'Y Cyfnod' newspaper has been a blow to the area.
