Complaint

That a town council member failed to declare an interest and voted on a matter in which she was alleged to have a personal interest.

Decision

Not to investigate.

One of the alleged links was suggestive of a personal interest in the matter being discussed. However, the member had previously declared the interest but considered that it was not relevant in on this particular occasion. The failure to declare was an isolated incident but the member was reminded of the need to consider and review her duties under the Code of Conduct. While the matter may have been a breach of the code an investigation would not be in the public interest.
