

ANALYSIS OF INSPECTION REPORTS
(Sept 2024 – March 2025)

School		Date inspected	Report Published
Ysgol Maenofferen	Y Sgwar, Blaenau Ffestiniog (219 on roll)	24/03/2025	30/05/2025
Staff support pupils to develop their spiritual and moral awareness suitably. For example, in the morning assemblies, there are opportunities for them to reflect on ethical issues and learn about the importance of working together and respecting their rights. The youngest pupils understand that everyone is different, including diverse families, and the oldest pupils are aware of the influence of famous black people in important events in history.
Ysgol Bodfeurig	Sing, Tregarth (52 on roll)	24/03/2025	30/05/2025
No comments
Ysgol Penybryn	Tywyn (236 on roll)	17/03/2025	22/05/2025
Pupils develop valuable personal, social and creative skills, which support their cultural awareness and appreciation robustly. Teachers provide a stimulating curriculum that develops pupils' understanding of the world and their local area effectively, for example by learning about the history of Welsh people in Patagonia and the coastal railway. Teachers also plan purposeful opportunities for pupils to discuss important issues such as relationships and diversity. Pupils treat others with respect and develop their awareness of different identities.
Ysgol Gynradd Rhiwlas	Rhiwlas, Bangor (34 on roll)	03/02/2025	07/04/2025
Within plenary sessions, teachers provide purposeful opportunities for pupils to learn about morals and important values such as kindness and respect for others. This is effective in deepening pupils' understanding of the need to treat everyone and everything in society with respect.
Ysgol Glan y Môr (Secondary School)	Cardiff Road, Pwllheli (469 on roll)	02/12/2024	06/02/2025
The school provides suitable opportunities for pupils to develop spiritually and morally by learning about diversity, human rights, ethics and citizenship. For example, the school Senedd has raised awareness of the importance of tolerance by leading the school's 'Prosiect Parch' (Respect Project).
Ysgol Treforthyr	Cricieth (115 on roll)	25/11/2024	30/01/2025
The headteacher and staff promote moral values and set high expectations such as courtesy and fostering respect among pupils. Staff support pupils to develop their spiritual and moral awareness well. For example, in plenary assemblies, they provide suitable opportunities for pupils to reflect on important ethical issues including showing kindness and emphasising the importance of children's rights within society. There are purposeful opportunities for the oldest pupils to participate in activities that persuade them that racism is not acceptable in society.

Ysgol Borthygest	Borth y Gest, Porthmadog (31 on roll)	18/11/2024	23/01/2025
Staff provide a purposeful, broad, interesting and exciting curriculum which covers the areas of learning and experience successfully. Staff support pupils' spiritual and moral awareness successfully. By presenting themes such as loyalty, rights, and empathy, pupils consider the views and values of others successfully. Through this, pupils develop an appropriate understanding of themselves and of individuals who are different from them.
Ysgol O.M. Edwards	Llanuwchllyn. Bala (77 on roll)	07/10/2024	09/12/2024
Staff enrich pupils' learning extremely successfully with valuable community links. For example, pupils play a core role in taking part in various services, compete in the local eisteddfod and collect litter to make the local area more attractive. As a result, opportunities contribute to developing pupils to be conscientious citizens who take pride in the community and their environment. The school provides suitable opportunities for pupils to develop spiritual and moral aspects in assemblies, which include inviting visitors to the school and by organising valuable educational visits. Pupils learn about other religions and global issues that occur in different cultures.
Ysgol Gynradd Abererch	Abererch, Pwllheli (71 on roll)	30/09/2024	02/12/2024
Staff provide a broad and balanced curriculum for the pupils. The staff provide valuable and rich opportunities for pupils reflect on important ethical issues. They celebrate differences within society during weekly assemblies and daily acts of collective worship effectively.
